Today, the Young Americans for Liberty (YAL) Board of Directors terminated Cliff Maloney from employment with the organization effective immediately.

Losing the confidence of the board, YAL staff, and key stakeholders makes the ability to lead impossible and this action necessary.

A comprehensive search for a new leader is underway.

YAL is continuing its independent investigation into all allegations, as well as ways to improve the HR process, to ensure a culture of trust, safety, and accountability thrives within the organization.
